

The Bauder Scholarship CFUF Member's Child Application

Dr. Lillian Bauder, noted business executive and long-time supporter of higher education, has graciously endowed a scholarship fund to support eligible Center for Urban Families members pursuing higher education. Annually, the fund provides up to $5,000 in scholarships to pay for tuition and fees.

To apply for a scholarship, applicants must:

- Have successfully completed a CFUF gateway program, or be the child of a member who has completed a gateway program;
- be enrolled in or are enrolling in a certification program or post-secondary degree program (2-year, 4-year or graduate degree);
- complete a scholarship application;
- provide proof of enrollment or an official transcript, if already enrolled;
- provide a copy of financial aid award letter; and
- participate in a 15-minute Zoom interview (which does not guarantee an award).

To submit the application:

In-person – Applications can be submitted at the Front Desk of CFUF in an envelope labeled “Bauder Scholarship Application”.

Via email – Attach the application form and any additional materials and send to kross@cfuf.org with “Bauder Scholarship Application” in the subject line.

Via mail – Mail the application materials in an envelope with “Bauder Scholarship Application” written at the top, addressed to the following address:

Center for Urban Families
2201 North Monroe Street
Baltimore, MD 21217

Applications must be received by April 21, 2023 to be considered.

If selected for an award:

The Scholar will be required to take a professional headshot, which will be arranged by CFUF staff. Scholars must sign a photo release form and consent to their headshot and biographical information being used on the CFUF website and social media pages. Additionally, the Scholars are expected to participate in a luncheon with CFUF staff and Dr. Lillian Bauder.
